His parentage has not been proved, but he may be the son of Stephen Hopkins of Wortley, Parish of Wotton, Underedge, Co. Gloucester, England, perhaps baptised there 29 Oct 1581. His first wife's identity is unknown.

= From "Mayflower Families in Progress: Vol. VI, Stephen Hopkins" pages 3-6: Stephen Hopkins sailed in the Mayflower in 1620, one of the "Londoners" or "strangers" recruited for the voyage. He was called "Master", and only two others of the 17 free men on the voyage were so styled [another was Richard Warren]. He seems to have originated from the family of Hopkins, alias Seborne, located for several generations at Wortley, Wotton Underedge, co. Gloucester. The Wortley historian has conjectured, after a thorough study of the family, that

<http://www.kindredkonnections.com/cgi-bin/kkindv?272149+1123357980+100010+English...> 8/6/2005

Stephen of the Mayflower may well have been son of Stephen Hopkins, a clothier of Wortley who also had son Robert Hopkins of London. Stephen Hopkins was probably the young man of that name who served as minister's clerk on the vessel "Sea Venture" which sailed from London 2 June 1609, bound for Virginia. The ship was severely damaged in a hurricane, and the company was washed ashore on the Bermudan "Ile of Divels" on 28 July. The 150 survivors were marooned on the island for nine months, building two vessels which ultimately took them to Virginia. During the sojourn Stephen Hopkins encouraged an uprising by his fellows upon grounds that the Governor's authority pertained only to the voyage and the regime in Virginia, not to the forced existence in Bermuda. For his remarks he was placed under guard, brought before the company in manacles and sentenced to death by court-martial. "But so penitent hee was and made so much moane, alleadging the ruine of his Wife and Children in this his trespassse," according to William Strachey's record of the voyage, that friends among his cohorts procured a pardon from the Governor. The two newly built vessels, the "Patience" and the "Deliverance" arrived at Jamestown on 24 May 1610, but no evidence has been found of Hopkins' residence there, and it is presumed he soon returned to his family in England. Strachey noted that while Hopkins was very religious, he was contentious and defiant of authority and possessed enough learning to undertake wrest leadership from others. The home in England of Stephen Hopkins was just outside of London Wall on the high road entering the city at Aldgate in the vicinity of Heneage House. In this neighborhood lived John Carver and William Bradford of the Mayflower Company; Robert Cushman, the London agent for the Pilgrims; and Edward Southworth, who later came to New England. Stephen was called a tanner or leathermaker at the time of the Mayflower voyage. The name of Stephen's first wife remains unknown. No authority has been found for the oft published identification of her as Constance Dudley. His second wife was named Elizabeth, and it seems certain that the marriage of Stephen Hopkins and Elizabeth Fisher on 19 Feb 1617/18 at St. Mary Matfellow, Whitechapel, London pertains to them. Stephen, wife Elizabeth and children Giles and Constance by first wife and daughter Damaris by second wife, and two men servants, Edward Doty and Edward Lister, came on the Mayflower. Son Oceanus was born during the voyage. Upon the ship's arrival at Cape Cod 11 Nov 1620, Stephen was among the men signing the Mayflower Compact in the cabin. He was one of three men designated to provide counsel and advice to Captain Myles Standish on the first land expedition of the Pilgrims in the New World. During the third day out, the company chanced upon an Indian deer trap, and Stephen was able to explain its function and danger to his fellows. In February of 1620/21, when Indians appeared on a neighboring hilltop, Captain Standish took Stephen Hopkins with him to negotiate with the savages. Thereafter, Stephen was invariably deputized to meet the Indians and act as an interpreter. In July of 1621 he served as envoy to friendly Chief Massasoit, and he made a friend for the colonists of Samoset, another Indian whom Stephen entertained in his home. Despite the mortality caused by tribulations of the first Pilgrim winter in New England, Stephen Hopkins' household of eight persons was one of only four households that escaped loss. Stephen Hopkins was referred to as a merchant and a planter in Plymouth records, also as "Gentleman" and "Master". He received a six-acre lot in the division of land in 1623 and later had other plots by grant or purchase. It is stated that he kept for his home throughout his life at Plymouth the lot on the easterly corner of Main and Leyden Streets that had been assigned to him on arrival. He built and owned the first wharf in Plymouth Colony of which there is record, selling it for sixty pounds in July of 1637. He built a house at Yarmouth on Cape Cod but returned to Plymouth and gave the Yarmouth dwelling to son Giles, who remained there. Stephen Hopkins was made freeman by 1633 and served with sons Giles and Caleb and son-in-law Jacob Cooke as "Voluntary" in the Pequot War of 1637. He held the position of Assistant in the Colony from at least 1633 to 1636. Probably because of his status in the Colony as a "stranger", Stephen Hopkins found himself on occasion in official difficulty.

In June of 1636, while serving as Assistant, he was fined for battery of John Tisdale. In 1637 and 1638 he was charged with various indiscretions involving the sale of intoxicants and other items at his dwelling. In 1638/9 he was found in contempt of court for refusing to deal fairly with Dorothy Temple, an apprentice girl, and in December of 1639 he was charged with selling a looking glass at an excessive price. The will of Stephen Hopkins, dated 6 June 1644, was proved upon testimony of William Bradford and Captain Myles Standish at a General Court at Plymouth on 20 Aug 1644, Calling himself of Plymouth in New England and "weake yet in good and pfect memory," he directed that his body be "buryed as neare as conveniently may be to my wyfe, Deceased." He made these bequests: To son Giles Hopkins the great bull now in the hand s of Mrs. Warren. To Stevnen Hopkins "my sonn Giles his sonne" 20 shillings in Mrs Warren's hands for the hire of said bull. To dau. Constanc Snow, wife of Nicholas, "my mare" To dau. Deborah Hopkins "the brodhorned black cowe and her calf and half the Cowe called Motley". To dau. Damaris Hopkins "the Cowe called Damaris heiffer and the white faced calf and half the cowe called Mottley." To dau. Ruth "the Cowe called Red Cole and her calfe and a Bull at Yarmouth wch is in the keepeing of Giles Hopkins w ch is an yeare and advantage old and half the curld Cowe." To dau. Elizabeth "the Cowe called Smykins and her calf and thother half of the Curld Cowe wth Ruth and an yearelinge heiffer wthout a taylor in the keepeing of Gyles Hopkins at Yarmouth." To four daus. Deborah, Damaris, Ruth and Elizabeth Hopkins, all the moveable goods that belonged to his house, "and in case any of my said daughters should be taken away by death before they be marryed then...their division to be equally devided amongst the Surv ivors." To son Caleb, "heire apparent," house and lands at Plymouth, one pair of oxen and the hire of them, then in the hands of Richard Church, and "all my debts which are now oweing unto me." The testator reserved to his daus. "free recourse to my house in Plymouth upon any occation there to abide and remayne for such tyme as any of them shall thinke meete and convenyent & they single persons." He named son Caleb as executor, and Caleb and Captain Standish as joint supervisors of the will. The inventory of his goods, taken by Captain Standish, Thomas Willet and John Doane on 17 July 1644, listed livestock (fifteen neat cattle, a horse and other stock), household goods, clothing, tools and more than seventeen pounds owed to Hopkins by debtors. The estate was given a total value of about 130 pounds. The division of his moveable estate to daus. Deborah, Damaris, Ruth and Elizabeth was made by son Caleb and Captain Standish on 30 Nov 1644. In his list of the Mayflower passengers, Governor Bradford included: "Mr. Steven Hopkins, and Elizabeth, his wife, and 2 children, caled Giles and Constanta, a daughter, both by a former wife; and 2 more by his wife caled Damaris and Oceanus; the last was borne at sea; and two servants, called Edward Doty adn Edward Lister." Taking note of changes after 30 years, Bradford wrote of the Hopkins family in the spring of 1651: "Mr. Hopkins and his wife are now both dead, but they lived above 20 years in this place, and had one sone and 4 daughters borne here. Ther sone became a seaman, and dyed at Barbadoes; one daughter dyed here, and 2 are married, one of them hath 2 children; and one is yet to mary. So their increase which still survive are 5. But daughter Constanta is also married, and hath 12 children, all of them living, and one of them married." /DC0260

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

*Marjorie Lawrence Henninge not of our line of John & Mary Cleveland Lawrence and John & Susannah Stanton Lawrence. She has Ruth Hoeper's list of children & marriages of these two families. When she finds on the inter-net names that seem to fit in, she mails Ruth copies. That is how I have BARBER family sheets and a Barber name listing. Marj will keep looked to find her own LAWRENCE ancestors.

PALMER LINE: "Genealogical & Family History Central N.Y.", by Wm. R. Cutter, Vol. 3, 1912, pp.1542-1545. ***

"A Brief Genealogical History of the Ancestors & Descendents of Stephen Palmer" by Frank Palmer, 1886. (Was drawn up because of a will requirement & 500 copies printed. Has info. on our Thos./1, Samuel/2, Thos/3, etc., rah) pamphlet.

PEARSON See Blodgett & Jewett's Rowley History, 1933. See Savages

BOYNTON See "The Boynton Family", by John Farnham Boynton, pub. by Goodspeed's
Book Shop, Inc., Boston, Mass. 1897, pps. IX-XIII

The above are only a start. More maiden names will appear for the succeeding generations.

An excellent reference book which is an index to 6 rolls of microfilm containing the bibliography to the names listed is "New England Marriages Prior to 1700" by Clarence A. Torrey. A man who left his 13 boxes of material to the N.E.H.&G. Society in 1962 when he died. It is called one of the best works since Savage's Gen. Dictionary.
Someone else indexed the material and the book was first printed in 1985.

 The information herein cross-referenced with the old document pages showing Palmer data for (7)/1 Sophia Palmer, and (7)/3 Calvin Palmer for their birth dates and that Calvin's wife's first name was Clarissa. The old document pages are held by Mrs. Lloyd Stalcup of Pontiac, Mich, a descendent of Sophia/Sophina (Palmer) Stanton.
